GO TO MY PROFILE PAGE OF THE PLATFORM

When you reach the Home page, click on the 'My Profile' button under the dropdown against your name as shown in the figure to reach the My Profile page of the platform.

The screenshot displays the home page of the JLR India platform. The browser address bar shows the URL `india.jlrcoderace.com/home`. The user is logged in as `@vishnu_Test`. A dropdown menu is open, showing options: `My Profile`, `Change Password`, `Admin`, and `Logout`. An arrow points to the `My Profile` option. The page content includes an Announcements section with two cards: Re-Login (Please logout and log in before starting any test so that your current login doesn't expire during the test.) and Java submission class name (To submit codes in Java, please use the class name `Solution` (case sensitive)). Below this is the Live Tests section with six cards, each featuring a `GO TO TEST` button. The test cards are: Internship Demo 27 Jul ME + SW (Test duration: 03:26:00), Internship Demo 27 Jul EE + SW (Test duration: 03:26:00), Power Electronics HW (MCQ test for Power Electronics HW, Test duration: 00:33:00), test test (Test duration: 00:42:00), Scrum Master at JLR India (Scrum Master at JLR India, Test duration: 00:17:00), and Agile skills (Agile skills, Test duration: 00:17:00).

FILL OUT THE PROFILE DETAILS

Fill out all the details without fail and save them. It is important to give them accurately. Fill the email ID you used to create the account.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `india.jlrcoderace.com/profile/vishnu_Test`. The page features the Jaguar and Land Rover logos in the top left and a user profile section on the left. The profile section includes a circular Jaguar logo, the name "Vishnu Teja Nangunuri", and an "Edit Profile" button. To the right is a "Recruitment Details Form - 2021/22 Cycle". A yellow warning box states: "Please fill the details below accurately. This information will be used during the recruitment process. Your data will not be shared outside the JLR group. Please refresh the page once if any details you have already filled are missing." The form is divided into two sections: "Personal Details" and "Academic Details".

ACCESSING THE TESTS

When you reach the Home page, the tests are visible as shown in the figure at the appropriate start time of the test.

The screenshot shows the homepage of IndiaJlrcoderace.com. The browser address bar displays 'indiajlrcoderace.com/home'. The page has a dark header with the 'Home' link and a user profile '@vishnu_Test'. A dropdown menu for the user profile includes 'My Profile', 'Change Password', 'Admin', and 'Logout'. The main content area is divided into two sections: 'Announcements' and 'Live Tests'. The 'Announcements' section contains two boxes: 'Re-Login' with instructions to logout and login before starting a test, and 'Java submission class name' with instructions to use the class name 'Solution' (case sensitive). The 'Live Tests' section contains six boxes, each with a test title, description, duration, and a 'GO TO TEST' button. The tests are: 'Internship Demo 27 Jul ME + SW' (03:26:00), 'Internship Demo 27 Jul EE + SW' (03:26:00), 'Power Electronics HW' (00:33:00), 'test' (00:42:00), 'Scrum Master at JLR India' (00:17:00), and 'Agile skills' (00:17:00). A white arrow points to the 'Power Electronics HW' test tile. A red text box on the right side of the page reads: 'DO NOT OPEN ANY OTHER TEST TILE EXCEPT FOR THE PROFILE YOU HAVE APPLIED'.
